

WHO WE ARE

The Irvine Company is a 140-year-old, privately held best-of-class real estate investment company with operations throughout California. Its management structure is concentrated in two main operating groups: Community Development, an affiliate responsible for the planning and development of all for-sale residential housing communities and other land sales; and the Investment Properties Group, which plans and guides the development, marketing and management of the company's large and diverse statewide portfolio of retail, office, apartment and resort properties.

Job Title: Vice President, Business Research and Analytics
Business Unit: Irvine Company – Corporate
Job Function: Research / Development
Location: Newport Beach

Qualifications: Fifteen or more years of relevant work experience. Management experience required. Bachelor's degree required.

Job Description:

- Design & implement a refined analytical framework and financial models needed to assess the risk and returns of various capital investment decisions to be made by the Company's Executive Committee.
- Provide leadership across multiple divisions to drive consistency and discipline of financial analysis.
- Provide upfront and ongoing market research to support assumptions used to drive financial models and investment analyses.
- Review and report on actual performance vs. projections.
- Research and report on how market participants are structuring and underwriting investment opportunities and assess current market yield requirements.
- Provide detailed valuation analyses of investment property portfolio.
- Interface with market experts on trends and provide timely feedback to the executive management team.

Additional Qualifications:

- Investment banking, major real estate brokerage operation or REITs experience preferred
- Real estate valuation and performance assessment expertise
- Financial modeling and math or finance expert
- Market research expertise
- Very strong understanding of underwriting real estate investments
- Excellent problem solving, conceptual thinking, quantitative and analytical skills
- Strong verbal/written communication, interpersonal, relationship building and presentation skills
- MBA or advanced degree from a leading graduate school preferred
- CFA preferred
- Advanced PowerPoint, Project, Visio and Excel skills

To apply please visit us at www.irvinecompanycareers.com to apply directly to this job please cut and paste the following link into your browser
<https://www.irvinecompany.apply2jobs.com/index.cfm?fuseaction=mExternal.showJob&RID=7635&CurrentPage=1>